Important International Probate Decision.

THE SAN PEDRO QUARANTINE.

No Interest in Firemen's Tournaments—Urging the Adoption of Constitutional Amendments.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—In the case of Robert Rogers and Thomas Henry Ismay vs. Hermann L. E. Meyer, administrator of the estate of Marion Meyer, deceased, Judge Wallace has rendered the following important opinion, holding that a California wife visiting England has the same power while in that country over her separate property as she had at home, and that the English laws cannot deprive her of it; that the capital stock of a California corporation cannot be transferred by compliance with the laws of foreign countries, but only by pursuing the methods prescribed by the laws of California. The defendant, Hermann L. E. Meyer, is the administrator of her estate, only appointed, pursuant to the laws of the State of California, and as such administrator claims the custody of the property of the deceased, that it may be distributed according to the laws of this State. The plaintiff, as trustee under the settlement, claims it and prays that it may be distributed by them in England, pursuant to the provisions of the settlement and according to the laws of that country. If the distribution be made according to the laws of this State, the surviving husband of the deceased would become entitled to one-half thereof and her mother to the other half, while the distribution occur pursuant to the settlement and the English law, the husband of the deceased would be excluded altogether, and the whole would go to her mother, as being her next of kin. The estate in question consists of certain stock of the Spring Valley Water Company, which was the property of the deceased. In the year 1871 the deceased and her husband, at the time sojourning in England, united in the execution of a deed of settlement, prepared in that country, by the terms of which the husband covenanted for himself and for his heirs, assigns and assigns, to hold in fee simple, the shares of stock, then in her possession, to be forthwith transferred to the plaintiff here, Robert Rogers and Thomas Henry Ismay, named in the settlement, to be trustees for her benefit, as under laws of England, she was incapable of dealing with it directly, for herself, in her own name. The court holds that the plaintiff had no claim to the custody of the stock and that it must be delivered to the defendant, as administrator of the estate of the deceased.

STILL QUARANTINED.

SAN FRANCISCO Declines to Revoke the Order Against San Pedro. SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—A special meeting of the Board of Health was held in Mayor Pond's office this afternoon for the purpose of considering the smallpox quarantine. A communication from Goodall, Perkins & Co., relative to the quarantine at San Pedro, was read by the Secretary, in which they stated that since the issuance of the order the company lost almost all their passenger travel between this city and San Pedro. The communication further stated that if it was deemed necessary by the Board to protect the city against contagious diseases by examining passengers on vessels arriving from Los Angeles, it certainly seems that the same rule should apply to other lines of transportation, especially those which reach that city by way of valleys and do not have the benefit of the health-preserving winds of the ocean. The communication closed with a request to either annul or modify the order. The proposition was fully discussed by the members of the board, and the opinion prevailed that it was the duty of the State Board of Health to attend to the railway quarantine, and that it was the duty of the city board to guard the avenue by water. By a unanimous vote the board decided to adhere to its position and not to revoke its quarantine order.

REDWOOD CITY, April 1.—At an early hour last evening the house of Mrs. A. M. Jewell, of this place, was entered and a gold watch and chain, valued at $200, taken. Shortly after a negro, giving the name of Charles Larkin, was arrested with the stolen property in his possession. He admitted that he had stolen the watch and chain, and was charged with the robbery of a burglar's tools, a gold watch, $52 in coin and some cigars. He is thought to be one Pat Hanley, a noted crook of Cleveland, O., and other Eastern cities, for whose arrest a reward has been offered. He is charged with the robbery of B. CONFUSION IN CHICAGO.

The Democrats Slightly Demoralized in Regard to Candidates.

CHICAGO, April 1.—The Cook County Democratic Club, an organization occupying the middle ground between the silk stocking and short-hair elements of the party had a meeting to-night, presided over by Charles Kern, at which it was expected that an anti-Harrison Democrat would be named for Mayor. The meeting adjourned without transacting any important business. The Democrats south of town assembled tonight but failed to put in any candidate for town office or to do anything else. So great is the confusion in the Democratic circles that in a number of wards there are no Democratic candidates for places as Aldermen.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

CHICAGO, April 1.—Judge Anthony arrived at the door of his courtroom to-day and could hardly crowd his way in on account of the density of the throng of indicted boodlers, present for the purpose of giving bail, and their friends. Sheriff Matson followed the Judge with a full list of the indicted. It is as follows: Geo. C. Klehm, Michael Wasserman, Michael Leyden, J. J. McCarthy, William J. McGargle, R. S. In the case of Mike Wasserman, the ex-Commissioner who was indicted on one charge of bribery and two charges of conspiracy, the bail was fixed at $15,000 for the three charges and bonds were given by the other Commissioners. The bonds of the ex-Commissioners on the list were fixed at amounts varying from $5000 to $7000, the latter that of Buck McCarthy, whose indictment contains five counts for bribery and conspiracy. Beside the Commissioners, ex-Commissioners and county officials indicted, there are nine contractors and dealers in furniture supplies, etc. At 2 o'clock this afternoon most of them had secured bail.

CHARLES S. FAIRCHILD

Appointed Secretary of the Treasury by the President.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The President to-day signed the commission of Charles S. Fairchild, as Secretary of the Treasury, and Isaac H. Maynard, as Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

The officers and many of the clerks of the department waited upon him early and extended congratulations. He received a profusion of flowers and congratulatory telegrams from all of the country. A majority of the telegrams were from banks and business men.

Judge Maynard will not qualify as Assistant Secretary before Monday, as he desires to dispose of some business now pending in the Second Controller's office. In accepting his new office he will suffer the loss of $700 a year in his salary, and so will the change at a notary public, an employee in the Secretary's office, and took possession of the office and desk formerly occupied by ex-Secretary Manning.

Mr. Fairchild at once entered upon the discharge of his duties. He was sworn in at 11 o'clock by a notary public, an employee in the Secretary's office, and took possession of the office and desk formerly occupied by ex-Secretary Manning.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Treasury Department must present an annual report to-day afternoon. The appointments of Secretary Fairchild and Assistant Secretary Maynard caused great rejoicing among the employees, and they expressed a universal desire to be allowed to express their congratulations in person. Apparently no promotions were ever made in the Treasury Department that met with such general favor among the employees. The two officials therefore consented to receive such of their respects after the close of business. Word to that effect was sent through the building and by three o'clock a large crowd had congregated on the corridor opening into the Secretary's office. Mr. Fairchild was visited first and then Mr. Maynard from the room of Mr. Fairchild to the corridor, then into the room of Mr. Maynard. Bureau officers, chiefs of divisions, clerks of all grades, messengers, watchmen and laborers mingled in the crowd and shook hands with the newly appointed officers.

TO BE TRIED.

The wife of the accused brought some friends to see his bail for him, but when they heard the charge they refused to sign the bond. Clarke waived examination and was committed for trial.

Temporarily Appointed Clerk.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The Interstate Commerce Commission having made a request for temporary clerical assistance the Secretary of the Interior to-day detailed Major S. A. Jones, of this office for that duty.

CHICAGO COMMUNISM.

What Joseph Greenhill has to say About Socialists in that City.

CHICAGO, April 1.—Emigrants from the socialist headquarters have had frequent communications with Mayor Harrison to-day, and now boldly assert that they can show a list of 40,000 pledged voters for the socialist ticket. Joseph Greenhill, the leading light of the socialists and a city employee under Harrison, says history is being made very fast just now. "You see, Chicago is a European colony, the masses are day laborers, who do not own their business. Three hundred persons employ 150,000 workmen within ten miles of the city hall. It is distinctively a capitalist city. Here the fight is to be made between labor and capital. They are now face to face, and the time has now come. Harrison is playing a peculiar part. He was never elected by the Democrats; the Socialists made him. He has been honest enough to at least acknowledge it. The tables have changed. The Socialists have their own ticket. The Democrats are asked to get out of the way. The mayor is in a place to keep them. It has been done. Democrats will not return the compliment by voting the Socialist ticket. This is the understanding. The present holders of appointed offices will not be disturbed on Tuesday next. All the wheel-horses of the Democracy will vote our ticket, knowing they will share the benefits. The campaign will cost them nothing and their old enemies, the Republicans, will go down before the fusion ticket. Talk about the Irish, I tell you that the coercion bill is making the Irishmen into day laborers every day. We will carry every Irish ward of Chicago by next Sunday. The people may become desperate for fear of the socialists; the citizens may rise up in the day and compel all party lines to be dropped and demand a union of all citizens against the socialists. If they become alarmed at the commune, they may do it. This is a contest between the socialist commune and capital. It is irresistible.

CURRAN'S PENANCE.

A Friend of Dr. McGlynn Punished for His Loyalty.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The Rev. James Curran, a staunch friend and former assistant of the deposed priest Dr. McGlynn, appeared with the latter at Jones' prods on St. Patrick's day. For this he was sent to Ellenville, N. Y., to reflect on his contumacy on appearing in public with a priest in disgrace. Dr. Curran did not profit by the hint, however, and on the night of the 24th of St. Patrick's day, he appeared on the platform with him. For this Curran has been ordered into solitary retreat at Hoboken with fasts and penance, for ten days at the palace of Archbishop Corrigan. It was intimated that the parish priest of St. Stephen would do well to take the hint and behave themselves lest they suffer excommunication. The punishment of Curran is taken as evidence that Archbishop Corrigan's course toward Dr. McGlynn has the approval of the parish priest of St. Stephen. The parish priest of St. Stephen would do well to take the hint and behave themselves lest they suffer excommunication. The punishment of Curran is taken as evidence that Archbishop Corrigan's course toward Dr. McGlynn has the approval of the parish priest of St. Stephen.

TO BE SELECTED.

The Designs for an Armored Cruiser and a Battleship.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—At noon to-day plans were opened at the office of the Secretary of the Navy for an armored cruiser and a powerful battleship. Under the authority conferred by the act of August 3, 1885, advertisements have been published by the department in American and European newspapers since August last, inviting submission of plans for the vessels. The plans were submitted by the following firms and persons: Barrow Ship-building Co., of Boston; the parish priest of St. Stephen would do well to take the hint and behave themselves lest they suffer excommunication. The punishment of Curran is taken as evidence that Archbishop Corrigan's course toward Dr. McGlynn has the approval of the parish priest of St. Stephen.

WHO IS HE?

A Thief and Murderer Named Kissane.

WHO HAS ACQUIRED WEALTH

Living on the Fat of the Land After a Scoundrelly Career.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

NEW YORK, April 1.—Recorder Smith in the general sessions to-day, heard the argument on the motion by counsel for J. B. Hart, of San Francisco, to have a nolle prosequi entered on the indictment for forgery on file in the District Attorney's office against William Kissane, now a wealthy and influential citizen of San Francisco, under an assumed name. The indictment was for the forgery of a check for $12,000 in 1874, against the Chemical Bank of this city. Counselor Jones appeared for the bank and opposed the motion. He said Kissane had not made any restitution to the bank for the money thus obtained in a criminal manner, although it appeared that he was a well-to-do lawyer. Jones submitted an affidavit made by the cashier of the bank, which set forth that the bank had suffered a loss of $25,000 by Kissane's forgery. District Attorney Martine was present and favored dismissing the indictment, considering the length of time that had elapsed and that Kissane had reformed and was leading an honest life. Everything considered, he was not disposed to press the case for trial at New York. Recorder Smith was not so willing to dismiss the matter. He said there was no evidence that lawyer Hart was acting with Kissane's consent and intimated that he would require assurance on this point before taking action. A telegram from the principal in the case would not be sufficient. The parties then left the court.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—The case of William Kissane, which is surrounded by so much mystery and which was heard to-day in New York before Recorder Smith, has attracted immense attention in California. This is due to the fact that Kissane is said and is now known to be one of the prominent and wealthy citizens of California and connected by marriage with many leading families of this city. Many attempts have been made by the press of San Francisco to get at the actual facts in the case, and to unearth the identity of this mysterious individual. The immediate notoriety of the case is due to the motion made by counsel for J. B. Hart, of this city, to have a nolle prosequi entered on the indictment for the forgery on file in the District Attorney's office against this man William Kissane. The indictment was for the forgery of a check for $12,000 in 1874, on the Chemical Bank of New York. A prominent gentleman of this city to-night, who knows Kissane well, and who knew him in the east, and who has been also a severe sufferer by Kissane, gave to the Associated Press the following story of Kissane's career, suppressing only the name which he is now known by in California. It may be said here that Kissane is one of the most prominent and wealthy residents of Sonoma county, California. He is a prominent attorney in this city, and that his connections by marriage are all leading society people. The statement of this gentleman is as follows: It is believed that the statements made through J. B. Hart to-night are true. Kissane, who is now known by the name of Kissane, has revealed the identity of Kissane and may probably lead to the complete disclosure of his criminal practices in the past. It is well known to certain parties that Kissane has been guilty of felony since his arrival in California. He is a prominent and seeks only the removal of legal disabilities and penalties for his past crimes. He is still under indictment for forgery in New York city and for murder in Arkansas, resulting from great loss of life by the burning of the steamer Martha Washington bound from Cincinnati to New Orleans, near Helena, Ark., on the night of January 14, 1852. He was between his indictment in January, 1853, together with some other persons, placed on trial for conspiracy and defrauding the insurance companies by claiming fictitious cargoes said to be burned on the steamer Martha Washington. He was convicted on three counts in Cincinnati and was charged, but each time managed to evade the law. After this he was arrested for murder and taken to Helena, Ark., but, owing to lack of county funds and the neglect of Congress to provide an appropriation for his prosecution, he escaped the clutches of the law. A request was made by Hon. James Guthrie for an appropriation, but it could not be procured. Kissane in the meantime jumped his bail and the next heard of him were his forgeries in California. The Bank of New York in August, 1854, for which he was arrested, convicted and sentenced to Sing Sing prison. Among his effects which were found at the time of his arrest, were some notes of five hundred dollar denominations on the Chemical Bank of New York. He was brought New York handcuffed and locked to the waist of an officer. The key of the handcuffs was lodged safely in the pocket of the Chemical Bank teller, who still lives, to probably assist in the last chapter of Kissane's criminal career. While in Sing Sing he offered to make a full confession of the Martha Washington steamboat conspiracy and to confirm the same on the witness stand, so as to assist the insurance companies in resisting fraudulent suits brought against them for fictitious cargoes. The authorities concluded that his testimony would be available and useful for that purpose, as he might not voluntarily give testimony if he served his full term. For this reason he was liberated and thereafter made a full confession of the Martha Washington steamboat conspiracy, the burning of the boat and the efforts used to secure the insurance. The confession occupied about one hundred pages of foolscap. His gang, one of the most complete organizations ever known in the country, scattered in consternation when the fact of the confession was made known. Kissane himself violated his promise to the insurance companies and fled to Nicaragua where, under an assumed name it was reported that he had been shot. His career in California under another assumed name is well known and all his connections, business, social and marriage are equally well known, he having acquired enormous wealth. His reckless attempt to quash the indictment in

New York will bring on himself and immediate friends, many of whom are ignorant of his past history, the most unpleasant consequences. General Darr, of this city, who is perfectly familiar with Kissane's career stated also to-night that on his first seeing Kissane in this State some two years ago he immediately identified him, but that out of consideration for Ki-sane's family and connections he had persistently refused to make any statement in regard to him, hoping he would make restitution to those he had ruined.

Abandoned with Bank Funds.

DETROIT, Mich., April 1.—A. M. Stanton, manager of George R. Sistrup & Sons, bankers in this city, has abandoned with between $20,000 and $30,000. Part of this sum was taken from the Detroit branch bank and the balance was secured by means of fictitious orders sent to the firm in New York.

Ministerial Inconsistency.

LONDON, April 1.—The News says: The land bill introduced by Lord Cadogan in the House of Lords yesterday evening convicts the Ministry of the grossest inconsistency and entirely justifies Parnell's action during last autumn's session of Parliament. The first thing that a rakes readers of Lord Cadogan's speech is that, inadequate as the bill may be, it entirely dispenses with the necessity for coercion, or rather it would if the necessity existed. Lord Cadogan argues that an illegal combination prevents tenants in Ireland from paying their rents. Lord Cadogan formally admits that tenants are evicted for not paying impossible rents.

Murderous Assault on Rustchuck.

BUCHAREST, April 1.—Three Bulgarian refugees, one of whom is a brother of the man under condemnation for participation in the recent insurrection, yesterday attacked the Prefect of Rustchuck, whom they met on one of the streets of the city. They fired at him with a revolver, wounding him, and then fled. Two of them were overtaken and imprisoned. In the case of the third by taking refuge in the Prussian legation.

Japanese Wedding.

The entertainment given by the Y. W. C. T. U. last night at Armory Hall was a great success. The title of the entertainment was self-explanatory, "Japanese Wedding," and attracted over 700 people. The sight of a stage handsomely decorated with Japanese brio-brac and beautiful young ladies in Japanese costumes was one calculated to attract, and the marriage ceremony was in itself interesting. After the form of the ceremony had been explained the curtain rolled up and the marriage carried out in its original style. The bride, "Yum-Yum," was impersonated by Miss Ella Richards, and the groom "Nanki-Poo," by Mr. Burck. Mrs. L. Carter was the "go-between" and was to take to nature in her representation. The bride's parents were represented by Mr. Beach McDonald and Miss Simmons, and the groom's parents by Mr. E. Brown and Miss E. Goodwin. The bridesmaids were Miss Rose Osborne, Miss Nellie McDonald, Miss Edith Oldridge, Miss Mabel Montague, Miss Roda Stevens, Miss Gerlie Finney, Miss Emma Reed, and Miss Minnie Lapham. The musicians were Miss Edna Davis, Miss May McCullough, Miss Eva Howe, Miss Day, Miss M. Feehan and Miss Ella Hillier. The torch-bearers were Miss Hisey and Miss Laura Charnock. During the performance Miss Florence Longley sang a Japanese song and Miss Maude Reese sang a selection from the Mikado. After the performance a large portion of those present remained and partook of refreshments, served in a dainty manner by maids dressed in Japanese costumes. Quite a large amount of money was obtained for the benefit of the new-born society for the poor, and admission fees and from the refreshments. Perhaps the pretty maids who served them so charmingly had a loosening effect on the purse-strings of the benevolently inclined. The maids belonged to Mrs. Goodwin's Band of Hope class, and were Miss Perryson, Miss Nora Fauts, Miss Alma Payne, Miss Lottie Germain, Miss Grace Haven and Miss Gerlie Benning.

The New County Maps.

A reporter yesterday saw the new maps which are being prepared for the County Assessor's office. The work is being done by W. A. J. Smith, assisted by Paul Kiecker and John Stengle, and is being performed in an excellent and thorough manner. This work will, when completed, form one of the most valuable records for the county assessors, and will compare favorably with those in San Francisco and Oakland. Many valuable pieces of land which have heretofore escaped taxation for want of information, will under this system, pay their just share of the general tax. In addition to which every property owner will be able to locate exactly every piece of land of which he is possessed. The scale adopted is large enough to allow the entering for each year of the amount for which each piece is assessed, and the changes there noted will help to equalize taxation in this county to such an extent that it will be impossible in future that property of the same intrinsic value will represent different values on the tax list. Mr. Mason, the County Assessor, deserves great credit for the energy which he has displayed in inaugurating this system.

The Medicos.

The Los Angeles Medical Society met last night at the rooms of Dr. Davison on South Spring street. The principal business of the evening was the discussion of the best method of vaccination, and also the rules which apply to different cases as presented. Dr. Davison read quite a lengthy and well written paper on the subject, and he was followed by several physicians, who related their experiences in different cases. The discussion was quite interesting to the physicians present, who were anxious to hear the experiences of each other in the use of vaccine matter.

Sid. is also a Notary Public and empowered to administer oaths with fluency and dispatch.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

GALVESTON, Texas, April 1.—A special to the News from San Antonio, in East Texas, near the Louisiana line, says: A terrible fight occurred this morning ten miles below Humphill, in Sabine county, between Captain Scott and his little company of State Rangers on one side and old Willis Connor on the other. Three of the Connor family and one ranger named Rogers were instantly killed, and Captain Scott and another of his men were badly, if not fatally wounded. One of the Connor boys escaped, but the rangers are in pursuit. Connors brought on the fight by firing from an ambush upon the ranger who were hunting timber thieves. SANTA ROSA, Cal., April 1.—A fire was discovered about four o'clock this morning in the Santa Rosa House, one of the oldest hotels in this State. The place was in a short time completely destroyed. The loss is $5000 and the insurance $2000. It is the opinion that the fire was the work of incendiaries, as at about eleven o'clock last night another fire was discovered and extinguished in the washroom, the walls of which were saturated with coal oil. A bundle of rags was found in the room also saturated with oil. Two months ago an attempt was made to burn the hotel but the fire was extinguished before any damage was done.

VOLCANIC ERUPTIONS.

The Blood-River District in Kentucky Disturbed.

CHICAGO, April 1.—The Times' Evansville, Ind., special says: Intelligence has been received in this city of volcanic disturbances and eruptions on Blood river, near New Concord, Callaway county, Ky., on Wednesday. Tuesday afternoon all wells in the neighborhood were found to be dry. The same night strange rumbling noises were heard in the earth similar to those heard at earthquake shocks. About 10 o'clock an explosion was heard in the direction of Stiger's Bluff, two miles from New Concord. A column of fire was seen to shoot toward the heavens at least 150 feet. A perfect pandemonium followed. Men, women and children, thinking the day of judgment had come, fell upon their knees and began praying and begging for mercy. The explosions continued at intervals throughout the night and columns of fire continue to shoot upward. Some of the more courageous citizens have made a visit to the bluff, but the best is no longer that they can get within a quarter of a mile of it, but red-hot ashes seem to be flowing down the west side of the bluff. When the informant left, a remarkable eruption was still in progress and a majority of the people were perfectly wild with terror. The scene of the phenomenon is in one of the wildest and most rugged parts of the State.

The Queen's Enthusiastic Reception.

The Stomach Distills Acid.
 These, if existent in a natural quantity, and unobscured by bile, play their part in the functions of digestion and assimilation. But the artificial acid resulting from the inability of the stomach to convert food received by it into sustenance, is the producer of flatulencies and heartburn, which are the most harassing symptoms of dyspepsia. The acid curative is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Far more effective is it than carbonate of soda, magnesia or other alkaline salts. These invariably weaken the stomach without producing permanent benefit. No man or woman chronically dyspeptic, and consequently nervous, can be in possession of the full measure of vigor allowed by nature. Therefore, invigorate and regulate the system, and by so doing protect it from malaria, rheumatism and other serious maladies.

On Sunday evening, April 3d, Dr. Goodwin, of Illinois, will give an address on "Temperance," at the Armory Hall, South Main street, at 7:30.

There seems to be some difficulty in finding a man to accept the office of Tax Collector. The salary seems to be only about $100 per month and a man has to give $100,000 bonds.

On the 15th of this month there will be an election in the First ward for a Constableman to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Lambie. The Democrats should put a good man in the field.

James G. Clark, the well known composer and vocalist, assisted by some of the best singers of Los Angeles, will give a concert at the Trinity M. E. church, Fort street, on Tuesday evening, April 5th.

A new hotel of large dimensions is going to be built on the townsite in Crescenta Canada. Several houses are being built in expectation of the coming of the dummy railway from Pasadena or Glendale, or most likely from both places.

Councilman Stearns is excited on the bridge question. He says the Kubra street bridge can be built for $2,000 less than the contract price, and he proposes to see that the city saves that amount of coin.

The ship Kennebec, which went down in a gale, near San Pedro, in February last, was yesterday raised in very good condition. The ship will be taken to the San Francisco dry dock for repairs. Her cargo of 1300 tons of coal will be discharged here.

The Ballona Harbor Improvement Company have just issued a beautiful map of the harbor, the lines of railway, the proposed city of Ballona and a birdseye view of the new harbor. The map was prepared by C. H. Howland and has been lithographed in colors. The lots will be put on sale next week.

J. N. Smith yesterday filed suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company for $25,000 damages. He alleges that on the 9th of March he was a passenger on a train on that road, and at Lancaster the train collided with another train. The collision threw him from his seat and injured his spine and partially paralyzed him.

The sale of lots in the Azusa City tract yesterday was unprecedented. When the office opened at 9 o'clock in the morning there were a hundred and fifty persons in line waiting to purchase. The sale was kept up steadily until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and over $250,000 worth of lots were sold. The sale will continue to-day.

The sympathy of a large circle of friends goes out to Mr. Frank McCoy in the death of his wife, which sad event occurred yesterday. Mrs. McCoy was one of the loveliest ladies in this city, and her sad death will leave a void in the hearts of her friends, which will never be filled on this earth. The funeral will be private and will take place tomorrow from the family residence on York street.

The new dummy line of railway is now graded almost to the Devil's gate, which it passes at an elevation of about one hundred feet on a curve that carries the track onto the mesa of La Canada, in which it is to extend westerly to the new town of Lanternman just laid out by Dr. Lanterman and Mr. A. C. McArthur. From this point it will be extended at small cost to Crescents Canada, and two large mountain towns will spring up like magic.

Record of Business With the Police Yesterday.

The charge of injuring a public highway, against S. W. White was dismissed yesterday by Justice Austin, who sustained the demurrer to the complaint on the ground that the charge did not constitute a public offense.

The case of B. A. Stephens, charged with libel, was continued yesterday until April 7th.

P. White was arrested yesterday, on a complaint, charging him with practicing medicine without a license. He was admitted to $100 bail by Justice Taney.

Carleton Opera Company.

Next Monday the Carleton Opera Company will open at the Grand Opera House. Those who attended the opera given during the former visit of the company will know the excellence of the performances. They are aware that Mr. Carleton never attempts to put on an opera except it can be done in the very best style. The only fault to be found with his former engagement was that it was not long enough. Nanon and Erminie were so excellently presented and contained so much taking music that those who had heard them once desired to go again. During the former engagement the rain kept some from attending, but the weather will not interfere this time and as only a week is to be devoted to opera, it is certain that the houses will all be full. Mr. Carleton brings with him two operas in which his company was not heard before, namely Fra Diavola and The Drum Major's Story, both abounding in pretty music, bright costumes and artistic scenery. In addition to these Mr. Carleton will give one performance of Mikado, which has not yet lost its popularity. For this has not had new scenery painted by Wilkins.

The following passengers left on the 1:30 train yesterday: J. M. Kierrieff, W. S. Peckham, Mrs. J. D. Steele, J. H. Hervey, Mr. Luce, Captain Frothingham, Mrs. Berry, J. M. L. Peck, Miss Tallett, Miss J. T. Sherman, Sarah E. Pratt, W. H. Harrow, W. E. Neil, Mr. Mahan, A. H. Blanchard, D. Snitzer, G. S. Ingraham, J. Goutier, J. W. Eldredge, Mr. Hippel, S. M. Stern, W. T. Schenck, J. D. Patterson, T. Randle, F. F. Johnson, Mr. Williams, J. Foster, E. C. Ferris, L. Liebhauer.

A Streak of Luck.

The accomplished expert, J. S. McKenzie, who retired from the position as deputy tax collector to enable him to act as an expert in the examination of the books and accounts of the County Tax-Collector, with the expectation of being restored to his old position on completing his expert duties, was left out by the supervisors, but his good luck did not forsake him, for the next day Governor Bartlett appointed him a Notary Public which is a much better position. He is shaking hands with everybody but tax-collectors at 134 N. Main street.

Died in a Boat.

Coroner Meredith yesterday held an inquest on the remains of G. Lattick, of Wilmington, who died on Wednesday of exposure. Deceased was a native of Australia, 43 years of age, and according to the testimony at the inquest, went away from Wilmington in a boat on last Sunday. A companion named Anderson had left the deceased at the salt works and deceased was going to row the boat home. Frank Beraldo and Anderson found the deceased dead in his boat at the Wilmington wharf. As the plan we are now working to distribute our valuable lots in the LEWIS TRACT, GARVANZO, becomes better known the public are realizing the immense advantage they are deriving in purchasing their Boots and Shoes from us now. Too much cannot be said in praise of

GARVANZO!

We placed a modest value on the lots, viz: $200, because we did not wish to exaggerate anything, but it is an actual fact that lots in the vicinity are worth from $300 to $400. WATER IS PLENTIFUL, the soil exceedingly rich, easy of access, every convenience for living,

SURROUNDED BY BEAUTIFUL HOMES!

It is destined to even exceed lovely Pasadena. Standing on the LEWIS TRACT the massive Raymond Hotel looms up grandly in the near distance. A short distance away is the elegant $30,000 GARVANZO HOTEL. The scream of the locomotive awakes the echoes in the hills as it goes screaming past the tract, only a few rods away. The hills and plains are covered with a carpet of velvety green and the air is deliciously balmy and filled with the fragrance of sweet flowers.
